WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

Monthly Newsletter

JULY 2021

The Washington Center for Yemeni Studies meeting with the Arab Center in Washington

The Washington Center for Yemeni Studies met with the Arab Center in Washington, through "Zoom" program, and the meeting dealt with supporting aspects of partnership between the two sides in the field of studies and research through joint cooperation, exchanging experiences through joint studies and seminars, and the importance of cooperation between research centers in Washington.

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies TV Appearances

The Washington Center for Yemeni Studies participated in commenting on the recent events in Yemen, on Arab TV, and Balqis and Yemen Shabab channels, represented by the Center's Director of Public Relations / Saif Al-Muthanna.

WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

YEMEN GOVERNMENT SAYS HOUTHIS NOT TAKING PEACE EFFORTS SERIOUSLY

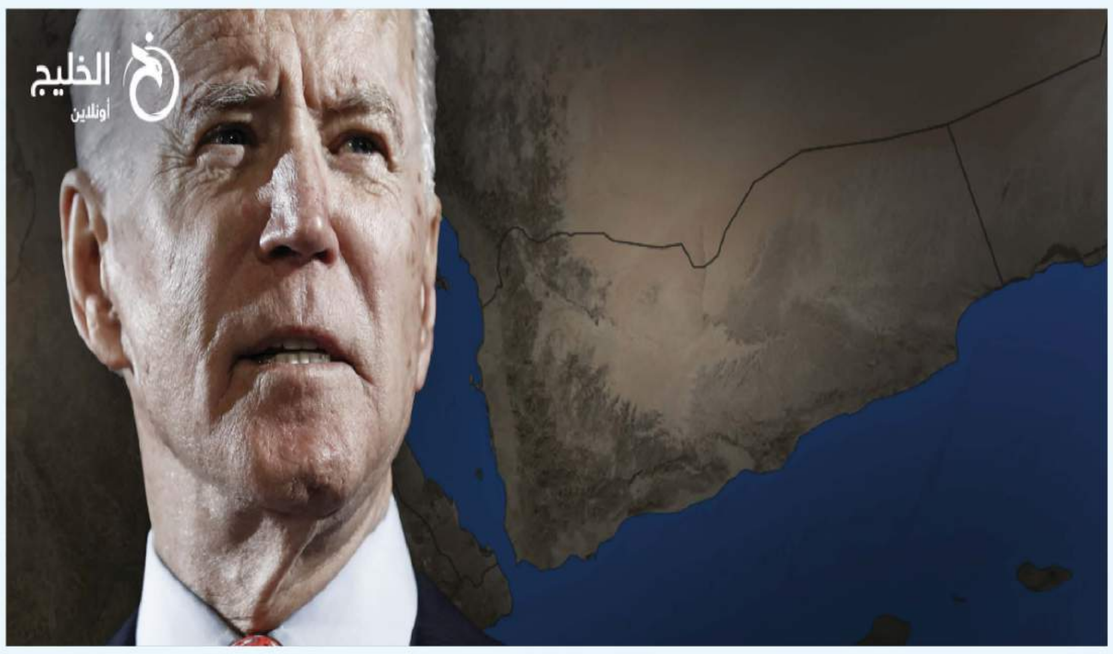
Yemen's government on Tuesday blamed the Iran-backed Houthis for disrupting peace efforts to end the war and renewed calls to the international community to mount more pressure on the rebels to stop their bloody...

Click to read more

UN RAISES ALARM OVER YEMENI CHILDREN'S EDUCATION AMID CONFLICT

In a report titled Education Disrupted: Impact of the conflict on children's education in Yemen, UNICEF said on Monday more than two million children were not in school because of the years-long conflict and extreme poverty.

Click to read more



BIDEN'S YEMEN SHIFT MAY BE BEARING FRUIT—AND A LESSON FOR WASHINGTON | OPINION

President Joe Biden's February announcement of an end to "all American support for offensive operations in the war in Yemen, including relevant arms sales," was welcome news.

Click to read more

WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

HOW BIDEN CAN HELP YEMEN

On the campaign trail and in his first weeks in office, President Joe Biden promised to end the conflict in Yemen. Reflecting a bipartisan Washington consensus, his approach hinged on supporting the U.N.-led negotiating process and pressuring Saudi Arabia to end its active mil-

Click to read more

YEMEN CONDEMNS HOUTHI OBSTRUCTION OF REPAIRING SAFER OIL TANKER

A mysterious air base is being built on a volcanic island off Yemen that sits in one of the world's crucial maritime chokepoints for both energy shipments and commercial cargo.

Click to read more

YEMEN: SEPARATISTS THREATEN TO HALT GOVERNMENT MEETINGS IN SOUTH

A senior official of the UAE-backed Southern Transitional Council (STC) threatened on Thursday to prevent the Yemeni government and parliament from meeting in the south of the country.

Click to read more

WILL A NEW UN ENVOY HELP BRING PEACE TO YEMEN?

The fourth UN envoy to Yemen will soon embark on leading peace efforts in the hope of finding a solution to the country's conflict.

Click to read more