WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

Monthly Newsletter

MAY 2022

WCYS

www.wcysus.org @WCYSUS Facebook.com/WCYSUS

WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

Monthly Newsletter

April 2022

WCYS TV Appearances

The Washington Center For Yemeni Studies participation in commenting the recent event in Yemen on Aljazeera TV and Arabi Channel , represented the center's director of public relations / Saif Almuthanna

WCYS IS ON CLUBHOUSE! JOIN US NOW

Click to join us!

WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

CENTCOM CHIEF HITS OUT AT IRAN, SAYS US COMMITTED TO MIDDLE EAST PARTNERS

The top US military general for the Middle East said in a recent interview that Iran was the "most destabilizing force" in the region, noting that countering this threat needed regional cooperation.

Click to read more

GCC CHIEF, UN ENVOY DISCUSS EFFORTS TO END YEMEN CONFLICT

The Head of a political and economic union of Gulf countries held talks on Monday with the UN envoy to Yemen on efforts to end the eight-year conflict in the Arab country, Anadolu News Agency reports.

Click to read more

UN LEADS £65M PLAN TO STOP HUGE OIL SPILL OFF YEMEN DURING FIRST CEASEFIRE IN SIX YEARS

The UN is to stage a rare donor conference on Wednesday in a bid to raise the $80m (£65m) necessary to prevent an ageing oil tanker off the west coast of Yemen exploding and causing an environmental disaster potentially four times worse than the Exxon Valdez spill near Alaska in 1989.

Click to read more

FIRST COMMERCIAL FLIGHT IN 6 YEARS LEAVES YEMEN'S CAPITAL SANAA

The first commercial flight in nearly six years has taken off from Yemen's rebel-held capital, a major step forward in a peace process that has provided rare relief from conflict.

Click to read more

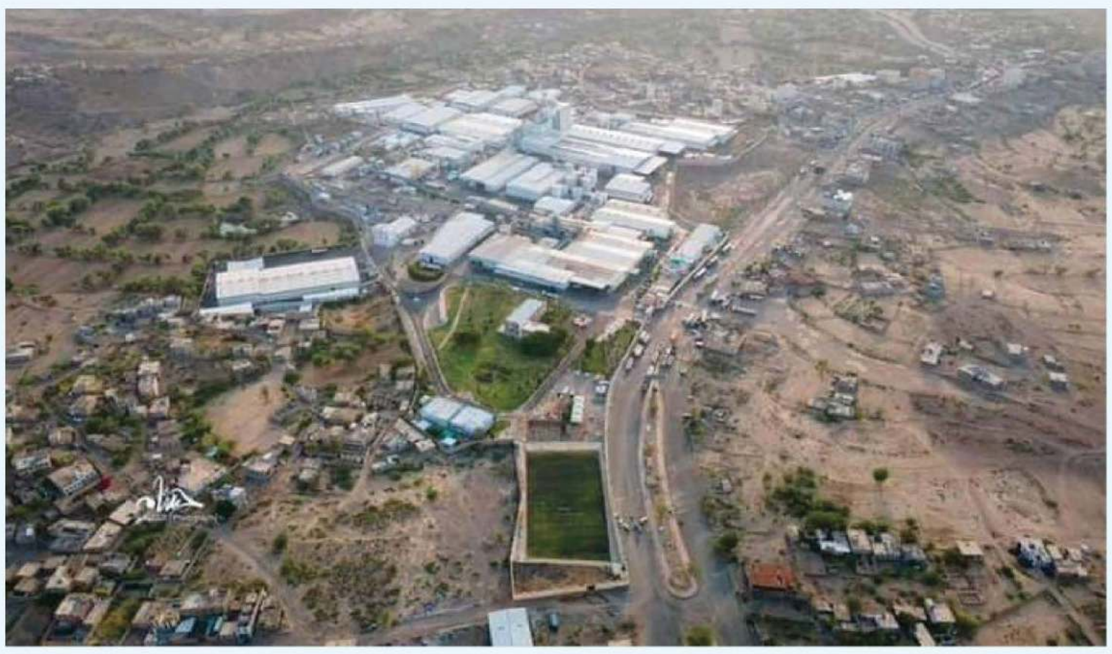
WCYS

Washington Center for Yemeni Studies

FAMED RACING SAILBOAT ATTACKED BY GUNMEN OFF WAR-TORN YEMEN

A Hong Kong-flagged racing sailboat that led its skippers to win multiple contests around the world came under attack Thursday off the coast of war-torn Yemen, with its crew reportedly targeted by militants who fired warning shots and threatened them with rocket-propelled grenade launchers.

Click to read more



UN SAYS YEMEN WARRING SIDES MEET ON REOPENING TAIZ ROADS

Yemen's warring sides began talks Wednesday on reopening roads in Taiz and other provinces as the United Nations pushes to extend a two-month cease-fire ahead of a looming deadline, the U.N. mission said.

Click to read more

PEACE, TAIZ IN FOCUS AS SAUDI DEPUTY DEFENSE MINISTER MEETS US SPECIAL ENVOY TO YEMEN

Saudi Arabia's Deputy Minister of Defense Prince Khalid Bin Salman met with US Special Envoy to Yemen Tim Lenderking to discuss the latest developments in the Taiz conflict, the Yemen war and the need for UN-backed peace proposals, among other bilateral issues, a tweet from the Saudi minister on Saturday said.

Click to read more